OUR PHILOSOPHY

Do Re Mi School of the Arts has a simple philosophy: every child can sing, dance and draw. Our directors and staff endeavor to teach techniques which allow your child's creative instincts to come to full flower. Whether it's singing in the shower, or blazing a path to Broadway; every artist begins with the basics. We're sure that the experience they gain through DO RE MI will enhance your child's self esteem and will make a positive impact that will last a life time.

Musically, our program first lets children know they can sing, then they are given a chance to experience singing in a group, a small ensemble and eventually we add dancing!

From Take a Bow to Spotlighters, our musical programs are designed to let kids have fun, build self esteem, learn about the arts and enjoy the experience of putting on a fabulous show and giving a great performance!

In Voice Class Young singers will begin to understand the techniques and methods used in training the voice. They will begin to understand breathing, voice placement, phrasing and how to use the voice safely.

For a complete theatre experience we offer Summer Company providing a practical approach to learning, rehearsing and performing. The marquee features scenes, songs and dances from some of the greatest Broadway musicals ever produced.

All of the experiences they discover with Do Re Mi are designed to build confidence in your child, expose them to the beauty of the arts, and provide them with valuable life lessons they will carry with them forever.

MEET THE DIRECTORS

Do Re Mi is a dream-come-true for Kay Randolph! She has been teaching music to the valley's children for over 30 years. Her classrooms have been private and public schools, church choirs and piano and voice lessons taught in her home. Kay has her Bachelor of Music degree in vocal performance and choral conducting. She has worked actively in charity fund raising work for The March of Dimes; including a musical benefit starring Dick Van Dyke!

Polly Chapman has her Masters of Arts degree in Theatre. She has taught theatre and dance to young people of all ages; from kindergarten to college. Having personally spent 30 years in theatre and almost as many working with kids, Do Re Mi School of the Arts gives Polly the best of both worlds! When not staging musicals with Do Re Mi, you might see and hear her in television and radio commercials. She has been the Fry's Food Store spokesperson for the past 25 years.

Polly was first introduced to Do Re Mi when her two daughters joined the group in 1985. It was then that she and Kay discovered they made a perfect team: one can sing and not dance and one can dance and not sing...Guess which one is which?

Their commitment to teaching and love of the theatre and music brings out the best in your children. They firmly believe that education in the fine arts makes better human beings! As your children grow, you'll see for yourself the positive changes that Do Re Mi has made in their lives.

The logo for Do Re Mi School of the Arts features the words "do re mi" in a stylized, lowercase, rounded font. The letters are white with black outlines and are positioned on a set of five horizontal musical staff lines. The "do" is on the first line, "re" is on the second line, and "mi" is on the third line.
